12 July Pentecost 6 - Psalm 119:105-112

We have in this extract from the longest of the psalms a much beloved verse, “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path” (v.105). The connection between God's word (or law) and (a guiding) light is one found elsewhere in the Hebrew Bible. The law (Torah) was the framing source for the community's wellbeing and identity, and to walk in the way of Torah was to walk in the light of God's way. We might imagine what it's like to walk along a path at night, struggling to find our footholds, and what a difference it makes to have a torch, street light, or even phone to guide us. We then know where to place our feet for a safe journey. In the New Testament, Jesus declares that "I am the light of the world" (John 8:12). The living Word is the light, the one who illuminates God's way before us. In Psalm 119 we might hear an anticipation, a prefiguring echo, of what is to come. The psalmist praises God for the light of the word, calling it "the joy of my heart" (v.111). In allegiance to Jesus, may we too find an incomparable joy with him as a lamp to our feet and a light to our path.

BIBLE READINGS for Sunday, 12 July. Pentecost 7

Genesis 28:10-19a
Romans 8:12-25

Psalm 139:1-12
Matthew 13:4-30,36-43

The liturgical colour for the PENTECOST season is GREEN

Green symbolizes the renewal of vegetation and generally of living things and the promise of new life. It is used for the Season of Epiphany between Transfiguration Sunday and the beginning of Lent, and for Ordinary Time between Trinity Sunday (first Sunday after Pentecost) and the beginning of Advent.

ENTERING THE CHURCH & THE HALL

Please consider the safety of yourself and others and follow the government and Synod guidelines. Sanitise your hands, sign the book. No shaking hands or hugging and don't forget 1.5m social distancing . Of course you, can sit with family members.

URGENT VALID POLICE CHECK

We all have the right to feel safe, valued and respected.

This is necessary for all volunteers, especially people working with children, people working with the elderly/vulnerable, group leaders and people handling church money i.e. offering counters. Police screening is now done online. If you need help with this, please contact Heather, Do Young or Sharon in the office on Thursdays.

With Love to the World

Have you been receiving a copy of With Love to the World? Have you paid for the last edition? If not, please put your $6 in an envelope marked "With Love to the World" and place it in the offering plate on a Sunday as soon as possible.

Payment to PRUC by Electronic File Transfer (EFT)

There has been a significant issue in that many Members have been depositing money for Offerings and the International Students but the reason for the deposit is not appearing on our Bank Statements. This has been caused by the new OSKO system that most banks in Australia are now using. There is a simple solution:

– ALWAYS put the REASON for the deposit in the REFERENCE Box (eg. Offering or Students)

I am told that the Reference Box always appears on our Bank Statement.

If you put the reason in the Description Box (or any other Box) then it may or may not appear on our Bank Statement and then I have to assume that it is an Offering.
